

Case stories

The bursary scheme has been running now for several years which has helped clinicians from around the world to further their professional careers as well as spread best practice and clinical approach in this specialised field. The charity has supported health care professionals from Nepal to Nigeria and Australia to Jordan. The following attachments are the stories demonstrating the experiences of some of the bursary recipients and hopefully provides an inspiration of the value of the award.

2006

Anuma Shrestha, Nepal

2014

Danimi Jean Bestman, Nigeria

Leesa Keast, Australia

Sonja Jovanoska, Macedonia

Daniela Baditescu, Romania

Sara Ali, Sudan

Report from Dr Danijela Soprenic and Dr Vanja Soprenic

2016

Bursary Report Danijela Soprenic and Vanja Soprenic SM2016, Bosnia and Hercegovina

Bursary Report Sarah Dunn, Australia SM2016

Bursary Report Rashidat Bolanle, Nigeria, SM2016

Bursary Report-Alen Humackic, Clinical Attachment, Kings College, London, June 2016

Bursary Report Daniela Baditescu, Romania, SM2016